This afternoon saw the most number of forum members appearing in CSC wearing our Starwars.sg T-shirt. Cool sight to have so many of us in "uniform" :)

Several new costumers made their debut appearances alongside our seasoned costumers. Not to be outdone, there were also seasoned costumers appearing in new costumes. The CSC crowd was well-rewarded with many opportunities to have photos taken with Vader, Anakin, DARTH Maul, Royal Guards, Stormtroopers, Sandtroopers, Biker Scouts, Tie Pilot... But the crowd-favourite for the day would have to be the "mini-clone".
